Test to Come in August-Buffalo to Be Supplanted by Tracks in Rhode Island and New Hampshire-Mets Hold Another Powwow - Wheelock Still Winning.

It has been definitely decided by the Saratoga Racing Association that during the meeting at the Springs in August the admission fee to the field will be increased from 75 cents to $1, while the grand stand rate of $3 will remain unchanged. When the rates on the local tracks were raised it was rumored that Saratoga would go to $4 and even $5, but such a scale has been deemed inadvisable. As the Saratoga track will receive no revenue from the bookmakers, the coming meeting will be a real test of the public's support. In order to lessen the daily expenses of parties who live in Albany, the track management has made arrangements with the Delaware and Hudson Railroad for a special excursion round trip rate of $1.50 from Albany to Saratoga on week days, except Saturday, when fare will be $1. This reduction is expected to increase the gate receipts so that lack of revenue from the betting ring will not be so great a hardship as under the old arrangements. Saratoga has been a pay-ing venture in the past, but the fees from the books have been a powerful item. For that reason it is a question of interest how the track will fare this year, with the same rich offerings hung up for turfmen and the same limited attendance. The track itself has been steenlechase course has been remodeled. all of the jumps being hedges now instead of The big stakes have attracted all of the best horses in training, and from a racing standpoint the finest kind of sport is looked

The report that there will be no more racing at Buffalo after this year, which was published in yesterday's Sun, was partially confirmed last night by a stockholder in a local track, who said that the attendance, even at popular prices, was surprisingly light, and that the gross receipts, minus the betting ring rake-off, would show a good sized deficit. Buffalo, under the Jockey Club's rule, has never been a gold mine, although much money has been sunk in the plant. With the sidetracking of this track, therefore, the Jockey Club will turn to two new tracks, in Rhode Island and New Hampshire respectively. The track at Narragansett Park is being fitted up for a meeting, at which bookmaking will go on under legal protection, while in New Hampshire a new track, one mile and an eighth in circumference, with a seven furlong straightaway, will be constructed before next season near the Massachusetts line, so that it will be within easy access of Boston and other New England cities. Andrew Müller and R. T. Wilson, Jr., are mentioned as the principal promoters of the New Hampshire track. There was very little work done by the Suburban candidates yesterday owing to the heavy tracks both at Gravesend and the Bay. Between races, however, C. E. Rowe's First Mason worked a mile and a quarter in 2:13, going the route in impressive fashion. It looks as if there would be a big field in the Suburban, as weather indications point to a dry fast track. The turf sharps figure Beldame the best, with Delhi, Adbell and Proper the contenders.

There were eighty-seven books in the "front line" yesterday, the nineteen nonmembers remaining where they were placed on Monday, in spite of the fact that two Mets came back to work. The non-members are talking of organizing with the idea of offering to the public the same guaranty against losses that has made the Mets so trustworthy. Whether this proposed move thad anything to do with the case or not could not be learned, but after the races the governing committee of the Mets, Wheelock, Jones, Burke, Heney and Lichtenstein held a conference in the ring that lasted for half an hour. Perhaps the latest turndown handed to the Mets by the Coney Island Jockey Club, which will prevent the layers from having a monopoly of the ring at the Bay, may have been the cause for the powwow, during which the participants did not conceal a bitterness of feeling that could not be mistaken.

at the Bay, may have been the cause for the powwow, during which the participants did not conceal a bitterness of feeling that could not be mistaken.

A perusal of the sheets on the first race did not uncover any big bets on Frank Farrell's King Pepper, the winner. The old fellow opened at 5 to 1 and then went up to eights. Montreson and Capt. Bob, on the other hand, were both magnets for smart money. George Wheelock and Leo Wagner lost $1,500 on Montreson, Eddie Burke and Bob Rose $1,000, with Frank Tyler. Joe Guthorn, Al Stokes and Tom Plunkett also dropping smaller bets. Capt. Bob was backed by Jesse Lewisohn, $1,000. Bill Porter, $1,000, and by Dick Brown, John Coleman and Bob Tucker, for $500 each. Joe Vendig took Ascension, and Big Tim Sullivan bet $500 on Old England.

George Wheelock won about $3,000 on Broadcloth in the second race, Bob Tucker and Charley Heney also playing S. S. Brown's colt. Sol Lichenstein lost $1,500 on Sinister in this event, Aleck Shields also backing the Keene colt for $1,000, and Jesse Lewisohn for $2,000. Al Dryer, who sometimes handles John A. Drake's money, bet $1,000 on Woodsaw, who was also supported by Ed Stutte, Billy Hayes, Counsellor Lichtenstein and others. Max Blumenthal bet on D'Arkle.

There was a very heavy play on Beaufort in the third race, the Wilson colt being backed down a point to twos, Sim Deimel and Morris Hayman each losing $1,500 on him, Eddie Burke and Wheelock $1,000 and Pat Shannon and the counsellor making smaller wagers. Jim Davey was about the only betting bookie who won on Confederate, who carried a $500 wager at fours.

Betting on the Brookdale Handlcap was more extensive than on any of the other races. Billy Du Bois placed $2,000 on Go Between, Joe Hayman bet $1,500 and the Counsellor $1,000 in the Sunder the impression that Dolly Spanker might beat him. Spanker caught $1,000 for Leo Mayer and a clubhouse commission, with Blumenthal, Tom Lloyd and others going to the Kingsten gelding, too. Tim Payne took Little Em, and so did Newton Bennington, nis and Louis Snell each lost $500 on Buttling. Con Costigan liked Merry Lark for a good bet.

Wheelock was the biggest winner on Bronze Wing in the fifth race. He bet $1,000 on the old horse at an average of $to 1. It was said that the owner of Bronze Wing, who bought him for $1,000 at the sale of Mont Tennes's horses, had $500 on straight at similar odds. Orthodox burned up wagers of $500 or more made by Dave Johnson. Sol Lichtenstein, Joe Hayman, Blumenthal and Shannon. Eole Pearsail went to Jerry C., and Jack McGinnis got rid of another $500 on Sweet Alice, R. Angarola split $500 on Ismailian and won $1,500 cn the race.

While Whimsical was a steady favorite in the last race, a world of money was bet on Sufficiency, who was hammered down from $to 1 to threes, the Galore filly running third, which caused Lewischn to lose $2,000; Du Bois, $1,000, Jack McDonald, $1,000, and several cluthouse commissioners at least $1,000 in bulk. Wheelock placed $1,000 on Goldie and Joe Hayman a similar wager on the favorite.

When Bronze Wing had passed the judges

When Bronze Wing had passed the judges he did a bronco act near the paddock gate and threw Louis Smith to the ground. Then he ran straight for the rails where a lone woman made a bold grab for the bridle. The next moment a stable boy caught the horse and Smith, remounting, rode him back to the scales.

GO BETWEEN WINS BROOKDALE. Beats Dolly Spanker in a Gallop at Graves

Go Between, who has recently shown remarkably improved form, won the Brookdale Handicap, one mile and a furlong, at Gravesnd yesterday in the most impressive manner He carried 110 pounds and was a warm favorite at 8 to 5. The field possessed considerable class, R. T. Wilson, Jr.'s, Dolly Spanker, who gave five pounds to Go Between, being second in favor at fours, with all of th others supported at sixes or sevens. Burns rode Go Between under waiting orders, the Meddler gelding running in fourth place in the journey up the backstretch, while Dolly Spanker made the running, closely attended by Little Em and Buttling. On the far turn Dolly Spanker had a commanding lead, but as soon as Burns cut loose with to Between, the latter bounded to the front with a great turn of speed and romped home a winner by six lengths in 1:54 4-5, over a heavy track. Dolly Spanker clung to second money which he took from Buttling by a length and a half.

S. S. Brown's Broadcloth, 6 to 1, picked up 120 pounds in the handicap for three-yearolds, one mile and 70 yards, and coming from behind under a good ride from Martin, olds, one mile and 70 yards, and coming from behind under a good ride from Martin, won by a length and a half from Sydney Paget's Woodsaw, 13 to 5, who made the pace for a mile and then finished second, fivelengths before James R. Keene's Sinister, the favorite, who quit in the stretch. The time was 1:472-5.

After a delay of fifteen minutes at the post, Frank Farrell's King Pepper, 8 to 1, made all the running in the first race, at about six furlongs, and came home two and a half lengths before Cannon Ball, a 30 to 1 sbot, who just nipped the place from Old England, 5 to 1, by a head. Montreson, the favorite, was disgracefully beaten. The time was 1:121-5.

Martin rode another fine race in the third event, for two-year-olds, five furlongs, on Kansas Price's Confederate, 4 to 1. Confederate was left at the post while R. T. Wilson, Jr.'s Beaufort, the favorite, was also of poorly. Both made up the lost ground rapidly and in a heavy drive Confederate beat Beautort a head in 1:03. James R. Keene's Lancastrian, 4 to 1, had early speed, but after leading until well into the stretch he stopped and barely landed third money by a head from R. W. Wilden's Consistent, 5 to 1, who clung to the Keene colt all the way.

Orthodox and Niblick, the choices in the fifth race, one mile and a sixteenth, were unable to finish in the money. Jerry C. 6 to 1, was in front for three-quarters of a mile, but blew up. Then Bronze Wing, 8 to 1, closed swiftly and won in a drive by a length and a half from Ismailian, 10 to 1, with Confessor, 8 to 1, third. The time was 151 2-5.

and Pirates Whitewash the Bostons. Mathewson accomplished a notable feat in Chicago yesterday, when he shut out the Chicagos without a hit. His good pitching Chicagos without a hit. His good pitching was needed, for the New Yorks were shy of hits themselves, and one run won the game. This is the second time in his National League career that Mathewson has pitched a hitless game. He did it on July 15, 1901, against the St. Louis team. Yesterday was the fourth time this season the New Yorks have whitewashed the Cubs. The Brooklyn worm turned in St. Louis, and the tailenders won their first game in the West. The Bostons fed on goose eggs in Pittsburg, and the Cincinnatis drubbed the Quakers. The results:

CHICAGO, June 13.—The triumph of Christy CRICAGO, June 18.—The triumph of Christy Mathewson's career came to-day, when he changed the tide of defeat which seemed to have set in against New York and shut Chicago out without the vestige of a base hit. Moreover, he did not give a base on balls and hit nobody. Twenty-eight men batted for Chicago, two reaching first on infield fumbles, one of these being subsequently captured. Mathewson's record will probably stand unjarred this season, and ranks next to the wonderful game by Young pitched last year.

Inning after inning, the locals came used and retired with a dazed look on their faces. The chances they hit were mostly of the easiest kind, and gave the New York fielder little worry. Browne pulled off the fastes play of the game, a neat running catch, resulting in a double play on an ambitiour runner. play of the game, a hear running cavar, sulting in a double play on an ambitious runner.

Brown pitched a fine game up to the ninth, but the vicious way in which the visitors kept driving the long files across the gardens presaged final disaster. The Chicago fielders were kept jumping pulling in all sorts of hard drives and making numerous splendid plays. Not till the ninth did the New Yorks get them safe and thereby bring dire disaster on poor Brown. Donlin, the first man up in the final inning, struck out. Browne singled to right. McGann's smash bounded over Casey, and Browne tried to get to third on it. Evers blocked him as he passed second, and the ball was waiting for him at third A wild kick followed, but Browne was declared a dead one. Meries pushed out a sharp safety, and it was all up to Dahlen. The ball cracked loudly off Bill's stick, and fell in center, while McGann flew home with the only run of the game. Dahlen was nailed trying to steal second, and Chicago could accomplish nothing in the ninth. The score:

AROOKUYN, 6; ST. LOUIS (N. L.), 1.

ST. LOUIS, June 13.—Brooklyn showed great reversal in form to-day, defeating the Cardinals by 6 to 1. It was a shut-out up to the ninth, when a free pass and two singles scored the sole tally registered by the locals. Klem put Shay out of the game at the opening of the sixth and Grady in the seventh. To cap the climax he put Manager Burke off the field in the eighth. Jimmie was on the coaching line when Grady was set Clevelands, Detroits and Chicagos Win -Rain New York.

The weather hoodoo sticks closely to the New York Americans. While it was as dry as a bone in adjacent spots yesterday, a local shower came up in the afternoon and flooded the local grounds, making a game impossible. In the three games played the Western teams were the winners, Cleveland in Boston, Chi-cago in Washington and Detroit in Philadelphia. The Chicagos took second place away from the Philadelphias. The results:

Detroit, 1; Philadelphia, 0. Cleveland, 11; Boston, 2. Chicago, 7; Washington, O.

DETROIT, 1: PHILADELPHIA (A. L.), 0. PHILADRUPHIA, June 18.—Sam Crawford's home run won to-day's game for Detroit. The fielding of both teams was faultless. The score:

of both teams was faultiess. The score:

GREAT GOLFING BY MRS. STOUT

MAKES NEW RECORD IN WOMEN'S M. G. A. MEDAL ROUND.

Record Field to Start Tournament at Baltusrol-Miss Rhona Adair's Mark Lowered by Two Strokes-Tie at 112 for First Sixteen-Driving Contest.

In winning the low score medal in the, qualifying round of the women's metropoli-tan golf championship at the Baltusrol Golf Club yesterday Mrs. Charles T. Stout made undoubtedly the best score ever recorded by a woman in this country. Few have beaten the total on a even short course. The round was the same played in the national championship at Baltusrol last September, but the plates had been moved to the front edge of four of the square grass tees, cutting the distance from 6,159 to 6,059 yards. Mrs. Stout made 86, two strokes under the woman's record for the course, made by Miss Rhona Adair, the British champion, in 1903 and the best performance made by her on the trip. Mrs. Stout had a superb driving game on all but three holes, remarkable mashie shots and sound putting, except on the second and sixteenth greens, on each of which she missed a put of not over two feet. There was some luck in the round, too, and it came along when needed to offset faulty drives from the second and third tees.

Getting off a good drive to begin with,
Mrs. Stout did not try for the bunker with her second and played the hole for a 5, laying the mashie approach so close she had only a four foot put to get down. The drive from four foot put to get down. The drive from the second tee hit the bunker, but bounded over, and she would have had a 5 had her putting not been faulty. The third drive went bang into the Alps, fortunately caroning through the hillocks, the hole being a 4 for her, and on the fourth tee Mrs. Stout half-topped, her last of three poor drives, and this made a 6, all that could be expected. Thereafter the drives were a treat to watch. She dropped a stroke through the green on She dropped a stroke through the green on the seventh and eighth, but ended the outward journey with a 3 for 44.

A par 3 and 4 began the home bunkered from a mashle, making a 5. The

A par 3 and 4 began the home journey, but she lost a chance on the twelfth by being bunkered from a mashle, making a 5. The thirteenth and fourteenth were par 4s, the only ones of the day on either hole. On the fourteenth, however, Mrs. Stout laid a mashle shot dead from a bunker, which was as much luck as skill. She was bunkered on her second to the fifteenth and on her third to the sixteenth, also missing a short put here, but a fine 5 and par 4 brought her home in 42.

This was cleven strokes better than her nearest opponent, Miss Elsa fluribut, but, to indicate that the match play may not be such a procession for Mrs. Stout, this comparison of the selected score made by the field is interesting:

Mrs. Stout. 5 6 4 6 5 4 6 5 8-44
Select score. 5 5 3 5 3 4 6 4 8-33
Mrs. Stout. 3 4 5 5 6 6 4 4-41-79
To Miss Helen Bishop, in making up the select score, is due the 5s on the first and fourth holes. Three had 5s on the first and fourth holes. Three had 5s on the second Mrs. Sanford and Miss Huribut did the third in 3. Miss Hurry had the only 3 of the day on the fifth. Mrs. Sanford and Mrs. Hubbard had the sixth in 4. The seventh was a stumbling block, only three besides Mrs. Stout getting the 525 yard hole in 0. Mrs. Shippen was alone with a 4 for the eighth and Miss Willis and Miss Reid had the minth in 3.

No less than eight had the minth in 3.

Baltusrol was never more beautiful in land-scape charms nor in the greensward, and each of the thirty-seven starters, a record number, was delighted with her visit. W. Fellowes Morgan, secretary of the U. S. G. A., was the sixteen had 6 on the sixteenth, nine the second had

The "Racycle" is totally different from any other wheel in the construction of its crank hanger. ball bearings are on the outside of the sprocket wheel so that there is no side strain as in the ordinary Bicycle. If you ride up a hill on a 1905 Racycle you will be surprised at its easy going qualities. It is a long way ahead of any bicycle and the best selling high grade wheel manufac-Prices range from 37.50 to 65.00.
